Listed South to North

CHATHAM VINEYARDS Chatham

Vineyards: On the southern end of the Shore just north of Eastville, you'll find estate grown wines that have garnered multiple awards. Set at the Federal Period home of Chatham on land first patented in 1640, the winery is now planted with more than twenty acres of French Vinifera. Perched on the fair shores of Church Creek it is home to the country's only Kayak Winery Tour through Southeast Expeditions. Tours/Tastings. June—August open daily. Remainder of the year: Open Thurs-Mon.10-5. Sun. 12 - 5. Closed Tues & Wed. [757-678-5588] chathamvineyards.com

HOLLY GROVE VINEYARDS Minutes north in the Nassawadox/Franktown area this family owned and operated farm winery flourishes along the tranquil waters of Holly Grove Cove. Multiple-medal winning vintner Jonathan Bess is committed to producing quality handcrafted wines using locally grown grapes. Capitalizing on the temperate climate on this "land between two waters", the wines are a true taste of the Eastern Shore. Kayak Winery Tours through Southeast Expeditions. Winery Tours/Tastings Daily 12-5. Call/email to confirm. [757-442-2844] hollygrovevineyards.com.

BLOXOM WINERY In 2004, Robert and Francesca opened one of the Shore's first wineries on a scenic Victorian-era farm. Found on the northern end of the peninsula north of Parksley, the beautiful Mediterranean-style tasting and dining room allows visitors to savor the "fruits" of their labor inside and out. A great complement to the wines is Francesca's pizza baked fresh in their wood-fired oven served year round Sat. 1 -7PM. Homemade pasta Fridays till end of summer starting at 5PM. Open Memorial Day till year's end. Fri-Sun.12-5 [757-665-5670] bloxomwinery.com
